

"Wine is a unique treasure of Italy. With wine you can taste history. You can drink the same wine as some of the greatest people throughout history: Dante Alighieri, Leonardo da Vinci, Bernini, Arturo Toscanini. Great wine is not like a piece of art that you can keep looking at for centuries. Once you open the cork, it's over. You have to drink it. It's a bottled whisper from the past." – Federico Castellucci
